22. A candidate selected for admission to the subordinate service by direct recruitment shall, from the date on which he joins duty as such, be on probation for a period of two years.

23. A probationer may act in any permanent or temporary post in the service for which he is qualified.

24. A probationer once selected and appointed should be continued in subsequent acting vacancies of the same class, occurring in the Unit, until he is permanently absorbed under Rule 29, unless dispensed with under Rule 26.

25. When a probationer, owing to the cessation of the vacancy in which he is acting is employed in any subsequent acting or temporary appointment (as provided in Rule 22 above) for which he is eligible, every such acting or temporary appointment shall be reported by the Unit Officer forthwith to the Central Recruitment Board.

26. If, at the end of the prescribed period of probation or earlier, the Unit Officer does not consider the probationer suitable for appointment to the service, he shall by order dispense with his services. In such cases the Unit Officer shall make a report to the Central Recruitment Board giving full reasons for the step taken by him.

27. An appeal shall lie against an order of termination of the services of the official by the Unit Officer to the Officer or authority to whom the Unit Officer is subordinate within one month of its communication to the official.

28. If no such order is issued by the Unit Officer within three months after the expiry of a probationary period under Rule 21, the official shall be deemed to have completed his period of probation satisfactorily.

29. Appointment to the Service.—The selected candidate after the successful completion of the period of probation shall be appointed a member of the service at the first opportunity and may, if a vacancy in the service existed, be appointed with retrospective effect; provided that no probationer shall be appointed to the service before any other probationer for appointment to the same service who completed his probation satisfactorily at an earlier date.

29. Seniority.—A member of a service shall take rank in any grade of the service according to the date on which he is substantively appointed to such grade.

30. Promotion.—Promotion from one grade to a higher grade shall be for merit, and no member of a service shall be entitled to claim such promotion on the ground of seniority alone.

31. Transfer.—A member of a subordinate service shall be liable to transfer to any part of the Mysore State.

32. Appointments in contravention of Rules.—Appointments made in contravention of Rules of Recruitment shall be liable to be vetoed by Government. Orders of Government vetoing appointments will be communicated to the Officer, to the Head of the Department, the Unit Officer, as well as the Comptroller for necessary action. Such orders should be given effect to immediately.
